Wisconsin Cervid Farmers' Foundation (W.C.F.F.), which is the educational arm of Whitetails of Wisconsin (W.O.W.), awarded a $500 scholarship to Emily Wegner at the W.O.W. Annual Summer Picnic previously held at Badger State Whitetails, Chetek, Wisconsin. According to W.C.F.F., Ms. Wegner is one of four winners selected each year. The applicant is either a member of W.O.W. or a child/grandchild of a member.

Emily Wegner attended Tomahawk/Merrill High School and is currently studying Game Design and Development at UW-Stout. She is the grandchild of Dick and Bev Busha, members of Whitetails of Wisconsin since 1999. Behind Emily's success included 4.0 GPA and graduating top ten of her high school class. W.O.W. is proud of the strong educational study and work ethics she carries into college with her.

W.O.W. is an association representing an industry that has an annual economic impact on Wisconsin's economy of $75 million. W.O.W. is a political voice for approximately 400 deer breeders in Wisconsin. They represent the deer industry by working closely with state and federal legislators and regulatory agencies to develop rules and regulations that govern the deer industry.

W.C.F.F. dedicates the promotion of deer farming and ranching as an agricultural pursuit. The Foundation serves its members through educational programs, research and publications providing industry leadership while maintaining quality industry standards.
